Ah, if the hearts that bled
Siept with the slain!
If the grief died—but no;
Death will not have it so. CRAVING REST.

To rest and trifle with rushes and reeds reading wild berries like chaplets of beads, etting the breeze fan my feverish brows, ng the birds sing their summery vows Oh! for the leisure to lie without thought, Upon the mind's anvil the ingot unwrought The hammers that beat in my temples at rest Calm in life's atmosphere, calm in the breast To loll or sannter, to laugh or to weep, Waken the echoes, or silence to keep, With no human being at hand to intrude, Or question the wherefore of manner or most

A married man at Ottumwa felt unhappy and hung himself. His wife and sisters cut him down. Then he tried to butt his brains out against the wall. The women interfered and held him till the city marshal came. That functionary cleared out the meddler's, and told the frantic youth to butt away as long as he wanted to. He butted three times and

"Little All Right," the wonderful acrobat, who used to delight American audiences when but six or seven years old, is now a very bright and interesting student in one of the grammar schools of New York city. He intends to return home after he gets his education, and engage in business. His name, "Little All Right," was given him on the occasion of a fall from the top of a twentyfoot pole upon the stage of a theater, from which he picked himself up and shouted, "All right!" much to the delight of the audience. Clergymen in some parts of Germany do not appear to be very well paid, judg-ing from the following advertisement which recently appeared in a Hessian journal: "A minister's wife, aged fortytwo years, the daughter of one of the superior clergy, desires, having previously obtained her husband's permission, to obtain employment as a cook, in consequence of the pressure of circumstances. She has, so far, brought up five sons and two daughters, so that they are independent of her, and believes her greater experience will command better wages than those which either of her daughters could obtain. The name of this unfortunate person is known to the

The wife of one of the masked bandits in New York called at the prison to see her husband the other day. She kissed him through the bars, and after wiping a tear from her eyes she handed him a box of cigars, a large paper of chewing tobacco and some clothing. She wore four sparkling diamond rings, a pair of superb diamond ear-rings, and an elegant solid gold square-barred pin, which nestled in a white lace collar. She wore a black silk dress trimmed with real lace, over which was a fine blue velvet cloak, also trimmed with black lace. She was accompanied by a young girl, a waiting maid, whom she called Mary Ann. She carried a Russian leather reticute and a camel's hair shawl belonging to her mistress. The number of vessels totally lost at sea during the month of November, 1573, was 238, of which 217 were sailing vessels and 21 steamers. The number is extraordinarily large, and yet it is small when compared with the whole number plying the sea. The national-ities of the sailing vessels lost was English 83, German 25, French 24, Norwegian 19, Italian 15, Dutch 11, Danish 11,

I read it, and thanking him, said, "All right, Mr. President, so far as it goes; but I would much prefer to have you add one thing more." Taking the card again and reading it aloud, he inquired. What more do you think necessary?" "Please add the words, "Also to come out!" Catching the idea, he stretched out his long legs, and leaning back in his chair, he again laughed loud enough to be heard all over the mansion. After adding the words, which he said were very important in those days, he inquir-"Lew, why did you not remain in the army?-you ought to be there." I replied, "My health failed, and I could not have lived until now in the service; but why do you think I should have remained?" "Because," said he, "you seem to have the natural elements for successful military service. Whilst you are disposed to push forward, you have at the same time the prudence to guard the rear and provide for a safe retreat. f necessary.

FINANCE AND TRADE. IN THE FINANCIAL circles of Madison

In the fin ancial circles of Madison street, information to reporters is still like a navy officers half-pay, "nothing a day and find yourself." The situation of money acmains easier than was hoped for at the opening of the week, because cotton has sold to an extent not then anticipated. The sales of the week are fully 15,000 bales, while for the previous three weeks they were 7500, 11,000, 8500 and 10,500 bales. This increase of sales brings groat relief in calculating the resources of the immediate future. To those having the necessary standing, money is very accessible. One bank, and all the street brokers, complain that they cannot find borrowers enough, and it is said that there are banks seeking to make investments through street operators that they cannot effect as profitably over their counters. Exchange is in abundant offering, rates remain at a discount of % on New York, ½ on Sew Orleans. The brokers took good at 118,81104, the higher rate for the largest quantity. Stocks and bonds were higher; there was some inquiry for city sixes, with the January coupon, at 41, but of course no holder would accept when he could readily sell to brokers without the coupon at 43. The Little Hock Gazette January 29th, reports: "State scrip has fluctuated a few cents during the past week, opening firm on Tuesday at 65, but closing at about 62, with a decline of a few cents later in the week. The market is steady, few selling unless compelled to realize the currency, and round amounts would be hard to find under 59 or 60. In selling the interest is counted generally. Other scrips have been in demand by tax-payers, with considerable speculative movement, both in county and city, which have moved freely at increased figures over those of last week, As collaterals for thirty to sixty days, State scrip is in most request by lenders, and is readily taken as collateral at those of last week, As collaterals for thirty to sixty days, State scrip is in most request by lenders, and is readily taken as collateral at 40. State levee bonds buying at 10 gill, selling at 15g20; State levee coupons 18g25." New York papers quote Arkansas securities as follows: "Arkansas 65, funded, 30c; 78, Little Bock and Fort Smith isne, 18c; 78, Memphis and Little Rock,—c; 78, Little Rock, Pine Binff and New Orleans, 16c; 78, Mississippi, Quachita and Red river,—c; 78, Arkansas Central railroad, 16c." The New York Bulletin, January 28th, reported: "Money is literally getting to be superabundant, and banks which, two weeks ago, had no difficulty in employing their balances at 7 per difficulty in employing their balances at 7 per cent., are now buying choice mercautile pa-per, running all the way from sixty days to four-months, at 6 per cent."

THE COTTON MARKET was quiet and spring in with spirit, although it was Saturday, and ran up sales to a respectable figure. New York closed dull and nominal at 15%c, the same notation as that of the evening before. New Orienns closed quiet at 15%c, which was %c better than the previous evening, with 8000 bales sales, and 67% bales received. Liverpool was fint at 7%d, a decline. Liverpool expects a cotton deluge, and we have no doubt is busy at this moment devising the means of keeping themselves, their wives and their little ones from being smothered when it

VARIETIES.

A good brother in a Baptist church, of Miami county, while giving in his experience not long ago, said: "Brethren, I've been tryin' this nigh unto forty year to serve the Lord and get rich both at onet, and I tell yer' it's might hard sleddin."

Monsignor Tommasino, a bishop of the "Old Catholic" school, living at Elizabeth, New Jersey, has issued an answer to the last papal encyclical, in which he reviews the political history of the pope with much bitterness. He addresses the pontiff simply as "Pio Mastal Ferretti, Bishop of Rome."

Dean Stanley does not believe in apostolic succession. In a sermon recently preached by him in Edinburgh, he showed that as a matter of history there are no successors to the apostles. These died and appointed no one in their stead. This is substantially the doctrine held by the Reformed Episcopal church, lately established in New York by Bishop stating that this day the roll of members comprises one hundred names. It is needless to say that in those names are included all the more intelligent and active firms among the cotton men, merchants, bankers, insurance companies and transportation concerns. The less influential and informed parties will join, at length, by the force of attraction. To be an "consider" will be no recommendation, and therefore even the most obtuse will have either to belong to the organization or resign any presentions to do not a presentions to do not a presentions to do not a presention to the organization of resign either to belong to the organization of resignanty pretensions to doing a regular cotton business. To the secretary, John Toof, Esq., the warmest praise must be accorded for the energy and industry which has accomplished so much in so brief a time. It is conceded that he is—without an exception—the best organizer in Memphis. From the vast array of fenges nested hourly in the collon exof figures posted hourly in the coston ex-change we quote the following: Low middling...

The market closed quiet and steady, Sales were 1800 bales, of which spinners took 1850 and exporters 250. We ought to add that the entire sales only riday amounted to 500 bales, 500 bales being reported after exchange hours. Receipts at United States ports for one day were 25,885 bales; same time last week, 25,918 bales; same time last week, 25,918 shows no falling off yet; stock, 897,612 against 800,578 last week and 516,935 at the same time last year.

CAUTION! CAUTION! TAYLOR, RADFORD & CO.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MEMPHIS POR the protection of the citizens of Mem-R phis, as well as ourselves, we deem it ad-visable to make the following statement:

For some days past an agent of the publish-ers of Edwards's Directory has been canvass-ing Memphis for subscribers and advertise-ments for a Directory soon to appear.

It is a well known fact that the above publishers have made no canvass of the city and gathered no information since the fall and winter of 1872-3.

Of course a Directory embodying rais in-yound and the terribic calamities that have befallen Memphis, and the countless changes that have taken place in names and hanges that have taken place in names an ocations, would be UTTERLY VALUELESS. That it is the purpose of the publishers of Edwards's Directory to offer to the citizens just such a book in return for their patronage, we have positive information from the most reli-able sources. However, ADVERTISEMENTS IN SUCH A BOOK WILL PAY IN ONE DISECTION AND WE ADVISE PROPLE TO INQUINE WHETE-ER THEY WILL IN ANOTHER.

We will soon give the city a fresh, full and perfect Directory, creditable to Memphis, and full of facts and names gathered up to the very day of publication
